TOKENOMICS

Strategic Allocation for Sustained Growth and Rewards

$Dopa Token's economic model is meticulously crafted to ensure stability, liquidity, and long-term growth. With a fixed total supply of 1,000,000,000 tokens, our allocation is designed to benefit investors and fuel the project's development. Below is a detailed breakdown of our token distribution, visualized in an easy-to-understand pie chart for clarity.

- 🔥 LIQUIDITY (28.5%): A substantial portion of the token supply is dedicated to providing liquidity and ensures a smooth and stable trading environment, with 100% being burnt on launch.
- 🚀 PRESALE (30%): Early supporters of $Dopa Token are rewarded with a chance to secure significant share of the total supply.
- 🔒 MARKETING (12%): To maintain a strong market presence and attract new members to our vibrant community, a dedicated marketing fund is in place. This fund supports a range of initiatives, from viral marketing campaigns to strategic partnerships, all aimed at amplifying $Dopa Token's reach and influence.
- 🔒 CEX LISTINGS (10%): A portion of the tokens is earmarked for centralized exchange listings. This strategic reserve ensures that $Dopa Token can secure premium listing positions, thereby enhancing accessibility, liquidity, and credibility within the broader crypto market.
- ★ TEAM (10%): Our dedicated team is the backbone of DopaMeme. This allocation ensures that the team is properly funded to continue delivering exceptional results and driving the project towards its ambitious goals.
